- Take note of any observations, questions, and exciting insights you found while reading through the text to share with the group. What jumped out at you? What was something you noticed now that you didn't see before?
- Can you think of any modern-day proverbs that you have come across in your life? Are they similar to the book of proverbs at all?

- What do verses 5-6 talk about? What does it look like to acknowledge God in all we do?
- How do you think we, even as followers of Christ, fall trap of "doing what is right in our own eyes?" What does the author infer from this phrase?
- Talk about a time in your life when you experienced discipline from your parents? Was it unfair? Has there ever been a time in your life when you feel like the LORD has disciplined you? What was that experience like?
- Based on what we have talked about and read, what does it look like for followers of Jesus to make wise decisions in their life?

Memory Verse:
Proverbs 3:5-6

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make your paths straight."
