Strange New World – Session 2 (Romanticism)

Implications

Lifework

1. Pay attention to how you're tempted this week to sin. How is the temptation related to "displacing God"?
2. Is God the ultimate reference point for your understanding of sin? Why or why not? How might you be tempted to define sin in relation to something other than God?
3. In class we talked about how sin has corrupted the human heart. How should the Christian think about their "heart" after being transformed?
4. How does this understanding of sin give us connection points with the world around us?
5. Read Eph. 4:17-24 and Col. 3:5-11. What do these passages have in common? How do they view sin and the image of God, especially in regard to spiritual maturity?
